

Frank W. Doyle

Graduated with a degree in Mechanical engineering, Nova Scotia Technical College (Dalhousie University) and an MBA, University of Toronto. Career in the CANDU nuclear industry spans forty years in development, engineering, licensing and project management, including line management positions with Atomic Energy of Canada, Ontario Power Generation and CANDU Owners' Group:

- Engineering manager and licensing responsibility for Bruce
- Engineering manager for Pickering
- Engineering services manager for CANDU 6 stations
- Director of Research and Development