

Caley Griener
Canadian Nuclear Laboratories
caley.griener@cnl.ca

Caley Griener, P.Eng, PMP, has over 10 years of experience managing large scale industrial projects; three years in a technical engineering role at Darlington Nuclear Generating Station, three years supporting Hydro-electric power generation, and four years at Canadian Nuclear Laboratories ensuring the successful execution of multiple decommissioning and demolition projects. He is presently the Director of Facilities Decommissioning and Environmental Remediation responsible for infrastructure decommissioning, demolition, and environmental remediation efforts at Chalk River Laboratories