

Mark Knutson
Senior Vice President of Enterprise Engineering and Chief Nuclear Engineer
Ontario Power Generation

Mark Knutson is the Senior Vice President of Enterprise Engineering and Chief Nuclear Engineer for Ontario Power Generation. He brings a wealth of experience having worked for OPG for 33 years, most recently as the Senior Vice President of Pickering Nuclear which is a 6 nuclear reactor station. Mark started his career as an Instrumentation and Control engineer after graduating from the University of Windsor with a degree in electrical engineering. He then became a licensed Shift Manager, and progressed to further leadership positions including Operations Manager at Pickering Nuclear and Director of Operations and Maintenance for Nuclear Corporate. He has also held positions as the Director of Projects and the Senior Manager of Engineering at Pickering Nuclear.